

Are we nearly there yet?

Who's next door?

Traffic jams – we all get stuck in them. And there's no situation more likely to make the kids restless. So try this little game of nosey neighbours on for size.

It's simple – everyone chooses a window and takes a quick peek at the person in the car nearest to them. Then it's up to you to decide what sort of person they are.

Choose a name, give them a voice, pick a job – and if you've got time decide where you think they've been or what their favourite meal is.

And for extra fun make the whole game a secret spy mission. Tell your kids that the aim is not to be seen looking by their chosen target. If they do their turn is over.
